

I am writing to you because i am concerned about a possible amendment or rule change regarding Media ownership. I urge you to strongly consider the consequences of any such change in ownership rules. Please consider the concerns of many and do not change our media industry to cater to the wants and greedy desires of the few.